1. Analysis of Operating Results and Financial Position

(1) Analysis of Operating Results

Operating Results for Fiscal 2023

During fiscal 2023, the impact of COVID-19 on economic activities in Japan and overseas has been easing globally, but economic activities in China have stalled due to its Zero COVID Policy and the confusion that followed the lifting of restrictions. Furthermore, material and energy prices were persistently high, and accelerating inflation in Europe and the U.S., and drastic exchange rate fluctuations further raised uncertainty about the future.

In this situation, consolidated net sales for fiscal 2023 amounted to ¥263.8 billion. By segment, sales were ¥157.4 billion in the Timepiece segment, ¥86.3 billion in the Consumer segment, ¥14.6 billion in the System Equipment segment, and ¥5.3 billion in the Others segment.

In the timepiece business, despite the negative impact of China's economic slowdown, sales increased due to the recovery in demand from travelers visiting Japan and strong sales of high-end G-SHOCK models, such as the GMW-B5000D, and the G-SHOCK 2100 line.

In the education business, sales increased. Although sales of electronic dictionaries were impacted by sales meeting cancellations at schools, sales of scientific calculators captured pent up demand in India, ASEAN, Oceania, and other regions. In the electronic musical instrument business, sales decreased due to the impact of a decline in demand for entry-level models driven by inflation.

Sales in the system equipment business increased with progress on delivery of a large project.

Casio posted an operating profit of ¥18.1 billion, allowing for a ¥7.5 billion loss in adjustment. The Timepiece segment posted ¥23.5 billion in operating profit, the Consumer segment posted ¥4.3 billion in operating profit, the System Equipment segment recorded a ¥2.5 billion operating loss, and the Others segment recorded ¥0.3 billion in operating profit.

Casio posted ¥19.5 billion in ordinary profit and ¥13.0 billion in profit attributable to owners of parent. Earnings per share (EPS) were ¥54.65.

Forecasts

The outlook for the global economy remains unpredictable due to concerns about the persistently high prices of various raw materials and energy, the impact of the situation involving Russia and Ukraine on the global economy, and ongoing global inflation.

In this business environment, Casio has announced a three-year medium-term management plan starting in fiscal 2024, with an eye on 2030. During the three-year period of the plan, Casio seeks to maximize corporate value in 2030 by positioning the period as a term for strengthening its profit base, implementing reforms and creating innovation.

The main strategies of the Medium-Term Management Plan are described below.

- (a) In the Timepiece Business, Casio will execute strategic investments, mainly in high-end metal G-SHOCK models, and restore profitability by increasing the share of sales from directly managed Casio stores and the direct e-commerce business.
- (b) In the EdTech Business, Casio will accelerate the integration of the hardware business of scientific calculators and electronic dictionaries with the software business of applications. In the Sound Business, establish a brand position based on lifestyle with a focus on the Privia digital piano.
- (c) Casio will efficiently operate the System Equipment Business through selection and concentration, and the reallocation of resources.
- (d) In new businesses, Casio will identify and nurture the next core business areas that will drive future growth.

*Starting next fiscal year, the education business will be renamed the EdTech Business, and the electronic musical instrument business will be renamed the Sound Business.

Currently, the forecasts for fiscal 2024 are as follows.

(Consolidated results forecasts)

Net sales:	¥265.0 billion (up 0.4% year-on-year)
Operating profit:	¥16.0 billion (down 11.9% year-on-year)
Ordinary profit:	¥15.0 billion (down 23.4% year-on-year)
Profit attributable to owners of parent:	¥10.5 billion (down 19.7% year-on-year)

Exchange rates for fiscal 2024 are estimated at US$ 1 = ¥130 and Euro 1 = ¥145.

(2) Analysis of Financial Position

Total assets at the end of fiscal 2023 stood at ¥335.2 billion, down ¥2.0 billion compared to the end of the previous fiscal year, mainly due to a decrease in investment securities. Net assets increased ¥2.7 billion to ¥221.6 billion compared to the end of the previous fiscal year. As a result, the equity ratio improved 1.2 points compared to the end of the previous fiscal year to 66.1%.

Net cash provided by operating activities was ¥11.3 billion, net cash used in investing activities was ¥3.1 billion, and net cash used in financing activities was ¥15.2 billion. As a result, consolidated cash and cash equivalents at the end of fiscal 2023 stood at ¥130.2 billion, ensuring adequate liquid funds.

Casio will continue to pursue effective management of its business assets, aiming to build a stable and strong stable financial structure.

(3) Basic Policy on Allocation of Profit and Dividends for Fiscal 2023 and 2024

Casio has positioned the maintenance and expansion of returns for all of its shareholders as an important management issue. The company's dividend policy is based on maintaining stable dividends, and Casio decides the allocation of profit by taking into account all factors such as profit levels, financial position, the dividend payout ratio, and future business expansion and forecasts.

Based on the policy outlined above, Casio has planned a year-end dividend of ¥22.5 per share, which, when added to the interim dividend of ¥22.5 already paid, will yield an annual dividend of ¥45.0 per share in fiscal 2023.

2. Basic Concept on Selection of Accounting Standard

Casio uses Japanese GAAP for the preparation of its consolidated financial statements in view of comparability for the period covered by the consolidated financial statements and inter-company comparability.

The Group's policy is to respond to the application of IFRS in an appropriate manner, taking into account a variety of circumstances inside and outside Japan.

Changes in Accounting Policies

Application of ASU2016-02 “Leases”

At foreign consolidated subsidiaries adopting U.S. GAAP, ASU2016-02 “Leases” has been applied from the fiscal year ended March 31, 2023. Due to this application, lessees, in principle, record all leases as assets and liabilities on the balance sheets. In applying the accounting standard, the method which the cumulative effect of a change in accounting policy is recognized at the date of application have been adopted in line with the transitional treatment of the standard.

As a result, on the Consolidated Balance Sheet for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2023, the balance of “leased assets, net” in property, plant and equipment increased by 370 million yen, and “other” in current liabilities increased by 119 million yen, and “other” in non-current liabilities increased by 259 million yen. The effect of this change in accounting policy on the Consolidated Statement of Income and information per share during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2023 is immaterial.

Segment Information

1. Overview of Reportable Segments

The company's reportable segments consist of the company's constituent units for which separate financial information is available and which are subject to periodic examination in order for the board of directors to determine the allocation of management resources and evaluate financial results.

The company has designated four areas of segment reporting, which are the "Timepieces," "Consumer," "System Equipment," and "Others" segments, based on the type of products and services, and the market and consumer categories.

The categories of the main products and services belonging to each reportable segment are as follows.

Timepieces.....Watches, Clocks, etc.

Consumer.....Electronic dictionaries, Electronic calculators, Label printers, Electronic musical instruments, etc.

System Equipment...Handheld terminals, Electronic cash registers, Management support systems, Data projectors, etc.

Others.....Formed parts, Molds, etc.

2. Basis of Measurement for Net Sales, Profit or Loss, Assets and Others for Each Reportable Segment

The accounting policies applied to reported business segments are generally the same as those adopted for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements. Intersegment net sales are based on prevailing market prices.
